"Dear Future Ball State Men,

Thank you, gentlemen, for taking time out of your day to read this scholarship opportunity. My name is Jared Roy and I am the Head of Recruitment at Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity on Ball State University's campus. I am reaching out to you today to provide a scholarship opportunity that is different from the rest. The men of Sigma Phi Epsilon, or SigEp, are built around the ideals of virtue, diligence and brotherly love. These principles have molded our Balanced Man Scholarship, which is the opportunity that I am providing to you today. With this Scholarship, we are looking for the men who are great students, strong leaders, and well-rounded individuals. Receiving this scholarship is not contingent on you joining our brotherhood, but through this application, you'll be exposed to some of the positive benefits of becoming a member. For our chapter, the amounts allocated will be $1500, $1250, $1000, and two $750 scholarships. To be rewarded this money, there are three steps that you will go through. Step one is filling out our application, which will be included with this letter. After filling out the application, email it to me at jdroy@bsu.edu. The second step is coming to the SigEp house during welcome week. We will be in contact on the exact date, but it will be between the dates of August 13th through 7th. With this interview, the president and myself will be having a conversation about your involvement in High School and how you plan on building off that at the college level. The third and last step, will be a finalist's banquet held on campus, where your parents, Ball State Faculty and guest speakers will be in attendance. We will have informed you if you are a recipient prior to the banquet being held. The Balanced Man Scholarship is an opportunity that will not only provide you with money to go towards your tuition, but will also allow you to see the many benefits of joining a Greek organization during college. Thank you so much for taking the time out of the day to read through this and if you have any questions, you can contact me at jdroy@bsu.edu or call/text me at (260)442-7081.

Best,
Jared Roy"

Thanks again for reading through this and feel free to contact me if any questions arise!
